Term 1 Week 4 - Wednesday 13th May 2015

Recent events

Look out Quirindi, NEGS Coaches Annyka Overton and Rachelle Hirst are bringing 25 NEGS equestrian students with them on the 16th and 17th of May to compete in the Quirindi One Day Event.

After some outstanding results during recent weeks and over the holidays, riders have entries across all classes in open and junior divisions and will be putting their horses through their paces in the lead up to North West Equestrian Expo, the Melbourne 3 Day Event and NSW Interschools just to name a few. Head Coach Annyka Overton said "we are very excited about the results that the new training programs are producing and the dedication of all of the girls to their training".

With two polocrosse carnivals washed out the team are looking forward to getting down to Quirindi this weekend to fly the NEGS colours. The club is playing a full team of 6 in the open competition and a section of 3 girls will partner with a section of 3 girls from the Quirindi club in the juniors. Coach Hayden Turnbull said that "all of the players are training well and are set for some big matches in the coming weeks". The team recently welcomed two new players who commenced in term 2 with Laura Frear and Lucinda Covill boosting the player numbers which make the training games even more fun. Thank you again to Mrs Finlayson and the wonderful parents of the players who are assisting by supervising girls at carnivals.

After some recent success in March and April four of our girls from the cutting academy are heading to Goondawindi on the 8th of May and backing up with a trip to Baraba next weekend to compete in open and youth events. Coach Grant Quigley said "the girls have been training hard and should perform well at the coming competitions". A huge thank you to Jackie McFarlane, Dru and Grant for helping the girls and their horses get to shows and have a great time whilst there.

The Junior Riding Club is back in full swing with weekend lessons filling fast with Henry and Flic. A huge vote of thanks to Lizzy Bloomfield for stepping in for Flic in recent weeks to help Henry keep the fun rolling.
